

LABOR HOSTS TO CONVENE IN BRAINERD SOON

STATE FEDERATION OF LABOR CONVENES MONDAY JULY 18TH

MANY PROBLEMS AFFECTING LABOR'S INTEREST WILL BE TAKEN UP BY BODY

REPORTS INDICATE THERE WILL BE ABOUT 100 DELEGATES IN ATTENDANCE

The annual meeting of the Minnesota State Federation of Labor will be held in Brainerd on next Monday, July 18 and the business sessions are expected to last three days.

Local committees have prepared various entertainment features. The automobile tour has been changed from Tuesday to Monday and will start at 4 p. m.

Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock, by request of the Trades & Labor Assembly of Brainerd, unions of Brainerd are to march in parade, forming at the Ransford hotel. The idea is to marshal the forces of labor in Brainerd and show the delegates the strength of the trade union movement in Brainerd.

Met in Brainerd 9 Years Ago
Brainerd had the honor of entertaining the hosts of labor in 1912. Since this convention they have been held in the cities named, in the order given: St. Cloud, Duluth, Winona, Hibbing, Faribault, Virginia, New Ulm and Rochester.

As stated by the Minnesota Union Advocate reports indicate that there will be about four hundred delegates in attendance. This shows the remarkable growth the organization has enjoyed during the decade that has elapsed since the former meeting at Brainerd.

In its early stages the Federation used to meet twice a year usually on Sunday afternoon in some little hall in Minneapolis or St. Paul and transact its humble business in half a day. Now the convention is held once a year and lasts not less than three days.

Headquarters of officers are at the Ransford hotel. The convention meetings will be held in Gardner auditorium.

Practically every union in the state which is affiliated with the American Federation of Labor is affiliated with the state federation. Each organization is entitled to one delegate and one for each twenty-five members with a maximum of five delegates. Central bodies with seven or less unions affiliated are entitled to two representatives with a maximum of five delegates.

Three Branches of Work
The work of the federation might be divided into three branches: organization, education and legislation. It is a voluntary body and consequently has not imperative authority. It cannot dictate or command, but it advises and cooperates. For this reason the organization has proven its worth to the hundreds of locals that have joined it.

Campaign of Education
An all-year-round campaign of education and organization is carried on by the officers, and each local in the state is kept in close touch with the general labor movement of the state through the federation. The extraordinary growth of the labor movement in Minnesota is in no small measure due to the aggressive and intelligent work that has been done by the officers of the federation.

Special Train Coming Sunday
A special convention train over the Northern Pacific will leave St. Paul July 17 at 7:50 a. m. and Minneapolis at 8:20, for Brainerd, arriving at St. Cloud at 10:05, Little Falls 10:55, and Brainerd Sunday noon.

Sunday a Busy Day
The State Federation of Labor starts Monday. But Sunday will witness the meeting of many bodies in separate gatherings of their own. The printers meet, butcher workmen, barbers and other crafts have meetings scheduled.

The Working Peoples' Political League holds a session at Gardner auditorium Sunday.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS DISARMAMENT COMMISSION MET TODAY

PRESIDING OFFICER PAYS TRIBUTE TO HARDING FOR CALLING THE DISARMAMENT CONFERENCE

By HENRY WOOD (United Press Staff Correspondent)

Paris, July 16—Tribute was paid to President Harding as leader in the movement for world disarmament as the league of nations disarmament commission convened here today. Rene Viviani, former premier of France, presided. In his opening speech he praised Harding's initiative, declaring the commission would be able to prepare valuable data. Contrary to expectations, Viviani however did not suggest an immediate adjournment on account of the Washington conference. Twenty delegates from fourteen nations met in Luxembourg palace for the first session. They do not officially represent their governments and will discuss the disarmament conference along broad general lines.

Japan Must Proceed Cautiously
London, July 16—The Japanese foreign office today announced that a favorable answer to President Harding's disarmament conference was given American Charge D'Affairs Bell yesterday.

The Japanese press and politicians agreed that Japan should attend the conference, but are uneasy because of the invitations to China, Italy and France. A feeling that the scope of the proposed conference is too broad and probably would include the Pacific problem was noticeable.

Belief here is that the other powers would support America in the Pacific matter. All leaders agreed that Japan must proceed cautiously.

A newspaper charged that a secret Anglo-American agreement had been effected and there is danger that Japan will be isolated. Some of the newspapers charge that America is inconsistent in its disarmament proposal owing to the United States attitude toward the league of nations.

Five Men Arrested in Minneapolis for Automobile Theft

(By United Press)

Minneapolis, July 16—Five men, said to be from Detroit, Michigan, are held at the city jail after being arrested early today in connection with an alleged automobile theft ring operating between the twin cities and Detroit.

Five automobiles bearing Michigan license numbers are said to have been stolen in Detroit. According to the officials the cars stolen in Michigan were brought here and remodeled, and the cars stolen in the twin cities were sent to Detroit, it was said.

The men under arrest gave their names as James Cardigan, Frank Cardigan, Wm. Dewitt, Fred Pluff and Irving Siska.

The arrests were made in a house said to have been purchased by one of the men a year ago.

BANK BANDITS ARE SURROUNDED IN WOODS BY POSSE

ROBBED BANK AT WARREN, WIS., AND SECURED $27,000 IN LOOT

(By United Press)

Marinette, Wis., July 16—The five bandits who robbed the bank at Warren, Wis., near here, Friday afternoon of $27,000 have been trapped in the woods near Townsend, twelve miles south of here and their capture is expected at any time.

A posse of more than one hundred armed men has surrounded the woods and are closing in on the bandits.

The bandits were forced to abandon their machine after it had been driven into a ditch. The men kept the posse in close pursuit at bay in a gun battle and then darted into dense woods.

The forest has been surrounded by the posse under the command of the sheriff of Oconto county. Members of the posse expect a battle with the bandits before they surrender.

Roswald Richardson, cashier of the bank and Miss Myrtle Brotton, assistant cashier, were locked in the vault at the point of revolvers in the hands of two of the men. The men, both masked, took $5,000 in cash and $22,000 in negotiable securities. Richardson and Miss Brotton said while only two men entered the bank three were on the outside standing near the machine. The sheriff said there were women with the men when they entered the woods at dusk last night.

Sheriff Sure of Capture

Townsend, Wis., July 16—Sheriff Miller of Forrest county, heading one of the posses pursuing the three bandits who held up the State Bank at Warren Friday and escaped with $27,000 in loot, announced today he would have the three bandits by nightfall.

Miller ran across two of the men in the woods and exchanged shots but the bandits sought cover in the woods. Another posse saw the third bandit near Clinton, Wis. The bandits evidently separated during the night, two going one direction and one the opposite course.

Officers believe the bandits escaped from the jail at Eau Claire a few days ago. One of the eggmen was believed to be wounded.

Preacher Reads Bible While His Wife Elopes

Grovesville Park, New York, July 16—"When a man is no longer able to control the love of his wife and when his wife yearns for the love of another man—he should step aside."

This is the philosophy of Rev. Clark Burea, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, love pacifist of Monticello, New York, who calmly read the Bible while Earl Van Noy, eloped with his wife.

"I shall not attempt to win back my wife," said Burea today when he was found by the United Press as a camp meeting at this remote spot. "I will not even attempt to regain our two children she took with her. I will not apply for a divorce."

CHARRED BODY OF MAN FOUND UNDER BLAZING AUTO

BELIEVED TO BE LABORER, RUSSELL BY NAME, WHO WAS KILLED BY A DENTIST

WHOSE WIFE CLAIMS IT AS HER HUSBAND'S BODY, TO COLLECT $27,000 INSURANCE

Rosburg, Oregon, July 16—With the headless and charred body lying in a morgue here claimed by Mrs. R. H. Drumfield as that of her husband, Dr. R. M. Drumfield, and with J. T. and Ed Russell equally insistent that the remains are those of their brother Dennis Hermit, laborer, the solution of the mystery involved when the body was found under a blazing automobile last night, lies in the brother of the Russells being found alive.

The man is supposed to have been murdered. Sheriff Stamer issued a warrant for the arrest of Drumfield on charges of murder. Information from various sources is claimed by authorities to substantiate the belief of the sheriff that the dentist killed Russell and so mutilated the body that it would be taken for that of himself. This was done in order that $27,000 in insurance might be paid to Mrs. Drumfield, who later would join her husband with her three small boys.

LIGHT RAINS SETTLE DUST AND MAKE MOTOR DRIVING A PLEASURE

Never was a game and fish convention staged which caused more enthusiasm among sportsmen than the Minnesota Game Protective League meeting at Rocky Point, Gull Lake, near Brainerd, which is closing its sessions Sunday.

Pike are biting good. The convention fell heir to a change in temperature from roasting hot of a week ago to normal, cool weather. It improved the fishing during the convention. Fish are just like human beings, when it gets too hot for comfort they seek the shady reaches of lake bottoms and do not bite.

But July 14, 15 and 16 have been cool days and Sunday looms up the same. The pike fully sustained the reputation of Gull lake as one of the greatest fishing resorts on the American continent.

The convention has spread broadcast the name of Gull lake, Brainerd, until it's a household word.

Nine pounders, six and four pounders of the pike family were caught and the committee of judges having in charge the awarding of prizes has its hands as full of claims as a United States bureau of war claims.

Trap Shooting
Trap shooting is a sport always popular in Minnesota and the west and there has been assembled at Rocky Point trap shooters from Minneapolis, St. Paul, Staples, Grand Forks, Warren, St. Cloud, Sauk Center, Fergus Falls, Cuyuna, Crosby, Aitkin, Duluth etc.

Wonderful Records
Due to splendid light and weather conditions Friday some remarkable scores were made by the devotees of trap shooting.

Dr. F. H. Allen of Staples in the first event staged won high gun and shot 112 straight, not missing a target all day.

Fred F. E. McKay of Minneapolis was second with 84 out of 85.

A. A. Finne, famous boy shooter of Brainerd, was third with 37 out of 39.

John Anderson of Little Falls was fourth with 32 out of 35.

PENALTY IS LIFE IMPRISONMENT—WILL BE SENTENCED TO REFORMATORY FOR WOMEN

(United Press)

Cleveland, Ohio, July 16.—Mrs. Katherine Eva Kaber today was found guilty of first degree murder in connection with the killing of her husband, Daniel F. Kaber by a jury in common pleas court here. The jury recommended mercy. The penalty is life imprisonment. She will be sentenced to Marysville reformatory for women for life.

Mrs. Kaber took the sentence very calmly, never saying a word. She was carried out of the courtroom in the arms of a deputy sheriff.

MELLON OPPOSED TO BONUS BILL

SECRETARY OF TREASURY SAYS BURDEN OF TAXATION WOULD BE INCREASED TOO MUCH.

CONGRESS FEARS TO REFUSE

Each House Wants the Other to Assume Responsibility of Rejecting the Measure—Many Veterans Really Need the Financial Aid.

By EDWARD B. CLARK.

Washington.—Secretary of the Treasury Mellon has written a letter to a United States senator declaring that the passage of the bill granting a bonus to veterans will increase the burden of taxation of the American people and will menace the success of the program of economy. Is this letter to have the effect of preventing the passage of bonus legislation?

For some reason or other there seems to be an impression in Washington that while most of the veterans of the great war are willing that congress shall vote the bonus money, many of them are not over keen about it. Unquestionably, there are some thousands, perhaps some hundreds of thousands of the veterans outside of those who are disabled, who otherwise are provided for, who actually need the money. If there were some way by which the men who need it could be separated from those who do not need it, and the money could be paid to the needy ones only, there is no soldier in the United States, probably, who would not urge that the necessity in every case should be met.

It unquestionably took some courage for the secretary of the treasury to make a plain statement of what the payment of the bonus would mean in the way of increased living costs and increased taxes. Naturally opposition to the bonus is one of the most thankless positions which a government official can take. It makes little difference how the majority of the senators and representatives may feel about the legislation, for knowing that they will run the risk of the charge of ingratitude to the veterans if they oppose the passage of the bill, most of them show outwardly at least a kindly disposition toward the legislation.

Trying to Pass the Buck.

What the outcome will be it is as yet of course impossible to say, but the senate has shown a marked disposition to support the legislation almost unanimously, and therefore, so to speak, the buck has been passed to the house of representatives. Each house unquestionably wished that the other would take the burden of refusing to sanction the measure. Each house is timorous about taking a course of opposition to the legislation.

There is a lot to be said for the bonus. Not a man will get the money who did not serve his country for thirty years while hundreds of thousands of other men were waxing fat in pocket in the peaceful pursuits of trade. The contrast between the condition of the men who worked in shipyards and in the arms factories at big wages and that of the men who worked for $33 a month in the trenches is the one strong inspiring cause of support of the bonus bill by veterans of the service who happen to hold positions in the various veteran organizations.

If there had been no slackers and no $20-a-day workers in the great war, nothing today would be heard of the bonus. The government in a way is reaping what it sowed. If the service of some men prominent in public life, including many general officers of the army, had been followed, bonus legislation would not be here to disturb conditions.

Why Was Not Labor Drafted?

At the time when the United States entered the war there were men who pleaded that not only should soldiers be drafted, but that all labor of whatever kind should be drafted. The plea was that virtually every man, woman and child in the United States should be brought by law into the service of the government.

If this had been done the men and women who remained in the field of peace would have had not only their work directly but their pay fixed by the government of the United States. The man engaged in peaceful war work was essentially a laborer for the government, and why the government should not have control over him as well as over the man who was fighting in the field, no official who looks at the logic of the situation can understand.

This view of the case is now generally taken in Washington, and it can be taken for granted that out of the lessons learned from the great war the United States never will get into a like fix again if unhappily it has to issue another call to arms. The draft was democratic and successful. In another war, if the feeling of today shall prevail, no worker of any kind will escape the draft, and if any combination of workers in the field of labor shall attempt to strike while their brethren are fighting there probably will be something coming to them. Higher officials here say that Uncle Sam has learned one lasting lesson.

It is understood that if Congress finally shall decline to pass the bonus legislation at this session a renewed drive will be made to make it certain from now on that no disabled veteran shall continue to suffer for lack of care and cash.

Japan Declines to Discuss Pacific Question Except in a General Way

A. L. BRADFORD
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, July 16.—Japan opposes the discussion of the Pacific and far eastern question in the forthcoming disarmament conference, it developed today.

She agrees to a discussion of the far east question from the standpoint of broad general principles. It was made clear to the United Press.

Today's attitude of Japan was seen in her reply to the American invitation to the conference which asked whether the far east question was to be taken up specifically or in a general way.

This developed together with an exclusive statement by Premier Hara, to the United Press offering the key to the heretofore unexplained action of Japan in welcoming disarmament discussion in the forthcoming conference but withholding discussion of the Pacific affairs. It was noted that the statement of the Japanese premier, which was furnished Secretary of State Hughes, did not mention the Pacific phase of the coming conference.

Jap Future Depends on Conference

Honolulu, July 16.—"Japan's future depends upon the Washington disarmament conference," former Prime Minister Okuma was reported as saying in an interview printed by the newspaper Jiji.

Falling in her object to curb Japan at the Paris peace conference, the Japanese statement added, America is attempting to pick this country at the Washington conference.

If Japan's stand on justice is not recognized, she might withdraw from it, the newspaper concluded.

(United Press)

Cleveland, Ohio, July 16—Mrs. Katherine Eva Kaber today was found guilty of first degree murder in connection with the killing of her husband, Daniel F. Kaber by a jury in common pleas court here. The jury recommended mercy. The penalty is life imprisonment. She will be sentenced to Marysville reformatory for women for life.

Mrs. Kaber took the sentence very calmly, never saying a word. She was carried out of the courtroom in the arms of a deputy sheriff.

MELLON OPPOSED TO BONUS BILL

SECRETARY OF TREASURY SAYS BURDEN OF TAXATION WOULD BE INCREASED TOO MUCH.

CONGRESS FEARS TO REFUSE

Each House Wants the Other to Assume Responsibility of Rejecting the Measure—Many Veterans Really Need the Financial Aid.

By EDWARD B. CLARK.

Washington.—Secretary of the Treasury Mellon has written a letter to a United States senator declaring that the passage of the bill granting a bonus to veterans will increase the burden of taxation of the American people and will menace the success of the program of economy. Is this letter to have the effect of preventing the passage of bonus legislation?

For some reason or other there seems to be an impression in Washington that while most of the veterans of the great war are bonus men, many of them are not over keen about it. Unquestionably, there are some thousands, perhaps some hundreds of thousands of the veterans outside of those who are disabled, who otherwise are provided for, who actually need the money. If there were some way by which the men who need it could be separated from those who do not need it, and the money could be paid to the needy ones only, there is no soldier in the United States, probably, who would not urge that the necessity in every case should be met.

It unquestionably took some courage for the secretary of the treasury to make a plain statement of what the payment of the bonus would mean in the way of increased living costs and increased taxes. Naturally opposition to the bonus is one of the most thankless positions which a government official can take. It makes little difference how the majority of the senators and representatives may feel about the legislation, for knowing that they will run the risk of the charge of ingratitude to the veterans if they oppose the passage of the bill, most of them show outwardly at least a kindly disposition toward the legislation.

Trying to Pass the Buck.

What the outcome will be it is as yet of course impossible to say, but the senate has shown a marked disposition to support the legislation almost unanimously, and therefore, so to speak, the buck has been passed to the house of representatives. FEDERATION OF LABOR CONVENES JULY 18

Winberg in Brainerd
President G. T. Winberg of the Federation of Typographical Union arrived in Brainerd last night and is busy completing reports etc. of that organization which will go into session Sunday afternoon.

Pres. Hall's Reminiscences
President E. G. Hall in talking of Brainerd remarked that the first federation convention that he had attended was in this city in 1911. That meeting was held in the opera house and was a small gathering compared with those of recent years. The following year the federation met in Stillwater when he was elected a member of the executive council. He continued a member of the council up to 1911 when he was elevated from first Vice President to that of President.

National Disarmament League
Mrs. G. W. Lawson will represent the Minnesota Branch of the National Disarmament League. This organization has developed rapid strides throughout the country and has already shown its influence by the fact that already the President of the United States has taken steps for world disarmament.

Vocational Board Speaker
James C. Batten, of the United States Vocational Board for service men and women, is a delegate from the Federal Employees and is expected to address the convention on the work of the government in the reconstruction and rehabilitating of the victims of the late war.

Industrial Commission Represented
The Industrial Commission a newly created board for the administration of the minimum wage for women, boiler inspection and the State Board of Arbitration will be represented by a member or representative showing the work of that part of state government.

Typographical Unions
The 12th annual conference of the Minneapolis Typographical Union in local unions will be held Sunday afternoon. Delegates will be present from nearly all the organizations in Minnesota. This session will be the most important ever held by the state printers. The matter of combating the fight of the open shop advocates in the printing industry will be given serious consideration. Ways and means will be devised to carry on a campaign of organization during the coming year; also a resolution of the Minneapolis Typographical Union in establishing a bank in Minneapolis for the working people. Some of the women clerks in that city have agreed to cooperate.

New Locals Join Printers
During the past year good progress has been made. Two new locals, Willmar and Olivia have been added to the state body. At the present time there are 20 locals in the state. G. T. Winberg, of Minneapolis, is president, and W. W. Deacon of the same city is secretary of the Minnesota Typographical Union Federation.

Pens in History.
When quill pens were in use by all persons who knew how to write there was a good deal of discussion as to what kind of quills made the best pen. Goose quills were by long odds the most numerous, but some persons, especially those of the fashionable and more secluded sets, preferred swan quills. It is said that the only thing which distinguished them above goose quills was that they cost more. Kings and queens, when they knew how to write at all, usually preferred to sign their names with eagle quills. Queen Elizabeth always wrote with an eagle quill pen, so the story goes as told by those persons who have written of this lady.

HIS DUTY TO AID TRAVELERS

Postmaster of Three Hundred Years Ago Supplied Horses to Those Who Needed Them.

A postmaster of 300 years ago was a very different person to what he is today. Do you want to know how? Well, the postmaster today has to do almost entirely with letters and parcels and, in England, of course, with telegrams, too. But 300 years ago he had to do almost entirely with horses. Thus I wonder, says a writer in the New York Evening Post, if you know that William Brewster, the leader of the Mayflower Pilgrims, was for many years postmaster at Scrooby, a little village in England on the great North road, halfway between London and Berwick?

William Brewster, however, did not live in a little house in the village street, using the front room as a post office, as do many village postmasters today. He lived in a grand old house called Scrooby manor and his duty was to supply horses to all travelers who desired to hire them, for in those days, of course, all traveling that was not done on foot was done on horseback. He was appointed by the government and he had what 300 years ago was a very handsome salary, namely, 2s a day, besides what travelers used to pay him if they stayed for a night or so at Scrooby manor on their journey. It was in the great hall at Scrooby manor that the Pilgrims used to meet before they left England for Holland, whence, some ten years or so later, they sailed for America.

UNDOUBTEDLY HIS BY RIGHT

Boorish Stranger Surely Proved His Claim to Possession of That Matchbox Without Argument.

The car on an English railway was not overcrowded. There was a goodly number of persons sitting in it, but evidently there was not room for the fussy man who entered last.

He stood on every one's toes. He pushed his luggage in every one's eyes and placed his heaviest bag on some one's hat.

He elbowed himself plenty of room on the side of the compartment.

"Infernal railway!" he muttered to the man next to him.

"Thank goodness," replied the stranger, "that you spoke first!"

"What do you mean?" asked the rude man.

"Well," said the stranger, handing him a gold matchbox, "I must give you this, sir."

"But," exclaimed the other, "we are complete strangers!"

"Yes, sir, I know that, but I am a member of a society, and we have subscribed for that matchbox, which we were going to give to a member whom we considered the rudest man on earth—but I think you deserve it far more than he does!"

Why Buried With Head to the West.

The usual posture of the dead is with the feet eastward and the head toward the west—the fitting attitude of those who look for their Lord, "Whose name is the East," and who will come to judgment in the regions of the dawn suddenly. But it was the ancient usage of the church that the martyr, the bishop, the saint, and even the priest, should occupy in their sepulture a position the reverse of the secular dead, and lie down with their feet westward and their heads to the rising sun. The position of the crozier and the cross on ancient sepulchers of the clergy record and reveal this fact. The doctrine suggested by such a burial was that those mighty men would be honored with a first resurrection, and as their Master came on from the East they were to arise and follow the Lamb as he went; inasmuch as they, with him, would advance to the judgment of the general multitudes, the ancients and the saints which were worthy to judge and reign. —From "Notes and Queries."

Famous French Song.

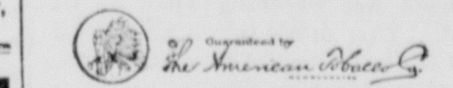

"Ca Ira" was the first popular song to spring out of the French Revolution. It was probably first sung in 1789 by the insurgents as they marched to Versailles. The music was that of a contra dance which was extremely popular under the name of "Carillon National." It was composed by a drummer in the orchestra of the opera house whose name was Beccourt. The air was a great favorite with Queen Marie Antoinette. The words were suggested by Lafayette to Ladre, a street singer; he remembered them from hearing Benjamin Franklin say at various stages of the American Revolution when asked for news: "Ca, ira, ca ira" ("It will go, it will go"). There are five stanzas with different refrains, becoming more ferocious as the revolution progressed.

FEDERATION OF LABOR CONVENES JULY 18

Winberg in Brainerd
President G. T. Winberg of the Federation of Typographical Union arrived in Brainerd last night and is busy completing reports etc. of that organization which will go into session Sunday afternoon.

Pres. Hall's Reminiscences
President E. G. Hall in talking of Brainerd remarked that the first federation convention that he had attended was in this city in 1901. That meeting was held in the opera house and was a small gathering compared with those of recent years. The following year the federation met in Stillwater when he was elected a member of the executive council. He continued a member of the council up to 1911 when he was elevated from first Vice President to that of President.

National Disarmament League
Mrs. G. W. Lawson will represent the Minnesota Branch of the National Disarmament League. This organization has developed rapid strides throughout the country and has already shown its influence by the fact that already the President of the United States has taken steps for world disarmament.

Vocational Board Speaker
James C. Batten, of the United States Vocational Board for service men and women, is a delegate from the Federal Employees and is expected to address the convention on the work of the government in the reconstruction and rehabilitating of the victims of the late war.

Industrial Commission Represented
The Industrial Commission a newly created board for the administration of the minimum wage for women, boiler inspection and the State Board of Arbitration will be represented by a member or representative showing the work of that part of state government.

Typographical Unions
The 12th annual conference of the Minneapolis Typographical Union in local unions will be held Sunday afternoon. Delegates will be present from nearly all the organizations in Minnesota. This session will be the most important ever held by the state printers. The matter of combating the fight of the open shop advocates in the printing industry will be given serious consideration. Ways and means will be devised to carry on a campaign of organization during the coming year; also a resolution of the Minneapolis Typographical Union in establishing a bank in Minneapolis for the working people. Some of the women clerks in that city have agreed to cooperate.

New Locals Join Printers
During the past year good progress has been made. Two new locals, Willmar and Olivia have been added to the state body. At the present time there are 20 locals in the state. G. T. Winberg, of Minneapolis, is president, and W. W. Deacon of the same city is secretary of the Minnesota Typographical Union Federation.

Pens in History.
When quill pens were in use by all persons who knew how to write there was a good deal of discussion as to what kind of quills made the best pen. Goose quills were by long odds the most numerous, but some persons, especially those of the fashionable and more secluded sets, preferred swan quills. It is said that the only thing which distinguished them above goose quills was that they cost more. Kings and queens, when they knew how to write at all, usually preferred to sign their names with eagle quills. Queen Elizabeth always wrote with an eagle quill pen, so the story goes as told by those persons who have written of this lady.

HIS DUTY TO AID TRAVELERS

Postmaster of Three Hundred Years Ago Supplied Horses to Those Who Needed Them.

A postmaster of 300 years ago was a very different person to what he is today. Do you want to know how? Well, the postmaster today has to do almost entirely with letters and parcels and, in England, of course, with telegrams, too. But 300 years ago he had to do almost entirely with horses. Thus I wonder, says a writer in the New York Evening Post, if you know that William Brewster, the leader of the Mayflower Pilgrims, was for many years postmaster at Scrooby, a little village in England on the great North road, halfway between London and Berwick?

William Brewster, however, did not live in a little house in the village street, using the front room as a post office, as do many village postmasters today. He lived in a grand old house called Scrooby manor and his duty was to supply horses to all travelers who desired to hire them, for in those days, of course, all traveling that was not done on foot was done on horseback. He was appointed by the government and he had what 300 years ago was a very handsome salary, namely, 2s a day, besides what travelers used to pay him if they stayed for a night or so at Scrooby manor on their journey. It was in the great hall at Scrooby manor that the Pilgrims used to meet before they left England for Holland, whence, some ten years or so later, they sailed for America.

LEAGUE DEVELOPS TRUE SPORTSMEN

The Minnesota Game Protective League Convention at Rocky Point, Gull Lake, has been enjoyable and most productive of results, or rather it has served to crystallize and give expression to that healthy public sentiment which the League and its affiliated clubs have done so much to create.

Laws are enforced, observed and of benefit only insofar as there is a real public sentiment in favor of them. The League is creating and stimulating a favorable public opinion for the preservation of the wild life of this county for the benefit of ourselves and our children and this is as it should be.

There was a time when the game laws of this state were looked upon by large numbers of the public as unnecessary and as an infringement of the rights and liberties of the individual but that feeling is fast disappearing. People now realize that these game laws are after all for the benefit of all of the people of the state and therefore for the ultimate benefit of each individual.

The league and its affiliated clubs have also created the feeling among the members and the people of this state that the laws for the preservation of wild game should be observed by all true sportsmen as a matter of honor on the part of each individual, and that the wild game of this state must have a square deal. In other words it is developing in the individual the ideas of true sportsmanship.

MENNONITES GET OPTION ON LAND IN PARAGUAY, S. A.

AND WILL EMIGRATE THERE TO ESCAPE MILITARY DUTY IN CASE OF WAR

JAMES I. MILLER

(Written for The United Press)

Buenos Aires, S. A., July 16—The greatest religious exodus since the children of Israel fled from Egypt is just getting under way today.

Sixty thousand Mennonites, members of a religious sect which do not believe in war, are fleeing to Paraguay from the United States and Canada. They expect to establish their own nation within Paraguay, and manufacture and sell goods. United States capital is said to be backing them.

Members of this sect had trouble with the United States and Canada during the war when they objected to entering the Canadian and American armies, so they have decided to brush the dust of these countries off their feet.

Fred Engen, a Minnesota man, representing the Mennonites, today obtained an option from the Paraguay government on three million acres.

The Paraguay government yesterday passed a law exempting sons of the Mennonites from military service.

Special Delivery Mail Will Cost 25 Cents

Washington, July 16—The cost of sending a special delivery letter is to be raised from 10 cents to 25 cents.

Postmaster General Will Hays in making the change is doing so on the supposition that the general public will prefer to pay the higher charge for better service than that which can be given under the present scale, with one messenger getting a batch of letters, with the result that often a special delivery letter takes longer than an ordinary one.

With the new fee in operation it will be possible to send a messenger with each letter.

AMUSEMENTS

At the Lyceum

William Russell, noted as a star in western dramas produced by William Fox, has left the plains and ranch life temporarily for life in the big city that is, on the screen. He is to open an engagement at the Lyceum theatre tonight in "Children of the Night" based on the stirring tale from the gifted pen of Max Brand.

While Russell here appears as a Wall street magnate, his host of admirers will be delighted to know that "Children of the Night" admits of no let-down in the display of nerve and muscular power with which they associate his name. The story is one which sweeps from high finance and high society into the secret places of the underworld. It bulges with perilous enterprise, hair-breadth escapes.

At the Lyceum on Sunday

Shirley Mason, it is said, never had a better photoplay than "The Mother Heart," a Fox production which comes to the Lyceum theatre Sunday. In it romance, adventure, fun and thrills crowd in rapid procession.

Hans Hanson Tonight at the New Park

The Swedish play which has been such a big success is played tonight by the Hans Hanson players. A guaranteed laugh producer from the land of northern Europe's most progressive people.

In this play their is now a dress which was worn on the stage by one of the actresses in the play at which Lincoln was watching when he was shot. This dress is all hand made and is one of the old fashioned riding habits. Mrs. Loranger is going to send this relic to the Museum of Natural History. Its a dress well worth seeing.

Official Fourth Pictures Next Monday at New Park

The local pictures taken in our city July 4th by the special camera man will be shown at the New Park Monday, these pictures are extra fine and show every detail perfectly, the parade, the crowds, the shop men, and a bird's eye view of our city from the water tower. The people shown can easily distinguish themselves as the clearness of the pictures permits the audience to see every detail. No advance in admissions and run in addition to the regular program.

Remember see yourself as others see you. Monday at the New Park theatre.

SCHEME TO RE GROUP ALL GOVT. BUREAUS READY FOR CABINET

PLAN DRAFTED FOR PRESIDENT BY WALKER BROWN WILL BE SUBMITTED TO CONGRESS

RAYMOND CLAPPER

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, July 16—President W. G. Harding is about ready to submit to his cabinet a tentative scheme for regrouping of the government bureaus. The plan is expected to include the following rules:

Creation of a department of public welfare.

Transfer of the prohibition enforcement machine from the treasury department to the department of justice.

Consolidation of all secret service activities of the department of justice.

Relocating of business and slicking up of the bureau of fisheries.

The plan is being drafted under President Harding's direction by Walker F. Brown and will be revised by the cabinet and submitted to the joint congressional committee on reorganization which in turn will make additional changes and then introduce it in both house and senate for further conference.

Consolidation of the air craft service is another reform which will be vigorously espoused by the president in the reconstruction program. President Harding feels that the army and navy aviation activities overlap in many respects.

MENNONITES GET OPTION ON LAND IN PARAGUAY, S. A.

AND WILL EMIGRATE THERE TO ESCAPE MILITARY DUTY IN CASE OF WAR

JAMES I. MILLER
(Written for The United Press)

Buenos Aires, S. A., July 16—The greatest religious exodus since the children of Israel fled from Egypt is just getting under way today.

Sixty thousand Mennonites, members of a religious sect which do not believe in war, are fleeing to Paraguay from the United States and Canada. They expect to establish their own nation within Paraguay, and manufacture and sell goods. United States capital is said to be backing them.

Members of this sect had trouble with the United States and Canada during the war when they objected to entering the Canadian and American armies, so they have decided to brush the dust of these countries off their feet.

Fred Engen, a Minnesota man, representing the Mennonites, today obtained an option from the Paraguay government on three million acres.

The Paraguay government yesterday passed a law exempting sons of the Mennonites from military service.

Special Delivery Mail Will Cost 25 Cents

Washington, July 16—The cost of sending a special delivery letter is to be raised from 10 cents to 25 cents.

Postmaster General Will Hays in making the change is doing so on the supposition that the general public will prefer to pay the higher charge for better service than that which can be given under the present scale, with one messenger getting a batch of letters, with the result that often a special delivery letter takes longer than an ordinary one.

With the new fee in operation it will be possible to send a messenger with each letter.

AMUSEMENTS

At the Lyceum

William Russell, noted as a star in western dramas produced by William Fox, has left the plains and rangelife temporarily for life in the big city that is, on the screen. He is to open an engagement at the Lyceum theatre tonight in "Children of the Night" based on the stirring tale from the gifted pen of Max Brand.

While Russell here appears as a Wall street magnate, his host of admirers will be delighted to know that "Children of Night" admits of no let-down in the display of nerve and muscular power with which they associate his name. The story is one which sweeps from high finance and high society into the secret places of the underworld. It bulges with perilous enterprise, hair-breadth escapes.

At the Lyceum on Sunday

Shirley Mason, it is said, never had a better photoplay than "The Mother Heart," a Fox production which comes to the Lyceum theatre Sunday.

In it romance, adventure, fun and thrills crowd in rapid procession.

Hans Hanson Tonight at the New Park

The Swedish play which has been such a big success is played tonight by the Hans Hanson players. A guaranteed laugh producer from the land of northern Europe's most progressive people.

In this play their is now a dress which was worn on the stage by one of the actresses in the play at which Lincoln was watching when he was shot. This dress is all hand made and is one of the old fashioned riding habits. Mrs. Loranger is going to send this relic to the Museum of Natural History. Its a dress well worth seeing.

SCHEME TO RE GROUP ALL GOVT. BUREAUS READY FOR CABINET

PLAN DRAFTED FOR PRESIDENT BY WALKER BROWN WILL BE SUBMITTED TO CONGRESS

RAYMOND CLAPPER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, July 16—President W. G. Harding is about ready to submit to his cabinet a tentative scheme for regrouping of the government bureaus. The plan is expected to include the following rules:

Creation of a department of public welfare.

Transfer of the prohibition enforcement machine from the treasury department to the department of justice.

Consolidation of all secret service activities of the department of justice.

Relocating of business and slicking up of the bureau of fisheries.

The plan is being drafted under President Harding's direction by Walker F. Brown and will be revised by the cabinet and submitted to the joint congressional committee on reorganization which in turn will make additional changes and then introduce it in both house and senate for further conference.

Consolidation of the air craft service is another reform which will be vigorously espoused by the president in the reconstruction program. President Harding feels that the army and navy aviation activities overlap in many respects.

HUMAN FLY TO CLIMB IRON EXCHANGE

Jack Williams, the human fly, will climb the Iron Exchange building tonight at 7:30 o'clock. Williams has been in the game for 12 years. His first climb was made at Cleveland, Ohio, when he rescued a woman from a burning hotel. On May 11, 1911 he climbed the Woolworth building, the tallest in the world—55 stories. It took 2 hours and 45 minutes to make this climb. He has climbed a total of 1439 buildings most of which were over 10 stories high.

GAME CONVENTION NOTES

L. A. Snelling, wire chief of the Northwestern Bell Telephone Co., had bad luck on a section of road to the convention and broke an axle. Friends towed in his car.

One way travel is the rule now. Cars go to the convention by way of the Gull lake road and on past Grand View Lodge. They return to Brainerd by way of the north road. This does away with any "meets" in narrow places and does not congest traffic.

Dr. and Mrs. F. M. Dryden of Crookston, guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Snelling, attended the convention.

A Little Falls' car carried M. and Mrs. Carl Bolander, Mrs. S. E. Betts, Roy Glinter, Lwoell Betts and Edward Glazek. Two of the latter play in the boys' band.

The Barnesville Game club traveled in five Fords and included Ted Holm editor of the Barnesville Record Review; H. C. Strummas, Peter Solum, O. J. Aamodt, Carl Aamodt, Matt Klein, Henry Ulrich, Art Borsheim, Knute K. Aberson, Harold Gunnes, G. H. Sommer, P. P. Malbustad, A. E. Nelson, Ed Risch, A. Anderson, Fred Trovaten, Henry C. Stening.

John Woodhead danced with the Indians Thursday night and Capt. Andrew A. Gieriet was slated for that honor on Friday night.

George Jacobson as "Senator Halvor Lindquist", put on a burlesque stump speech which created peals of laughter. From the top of the new Ford ruffled on the grounds, the "senator" spoke in favor of free opera houses, free newspapers, free railway fares, free lunch, etc.

The Brainerd municipal band played from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. Friday.

Senator P. H. McGary of Walker, the best advertiser Walker ever had, spoke on good roads, good fishing, good hunting, 10,000 lakes, etc. It was a typical McGary address and pleased the huge crowd.

The nominating committee of the convention included O. E. Deckert, Minneapolis; E. Lindquist, Olivia; John F. Woodhead, Brainerd; E. A. Berg, Little Falls; Hugo Herman, St. Paul.

HOMER GREEN HELD TO GRAND JURY

Motley Man is Charged With Killing Eugene LeVoy at Motley—Arrested Last Saturday

TESTIMONY OFFERED BY STATE

Claim Made That the Shooting Was Entirely Separate from Attack on Constable

Homer Green, Motley, 23 years old, arrested last Saturday on a charge of first degree murder, more specifically with premeditatedly firing the shot which killed Eugene LeVoy during chase of the man and two brothers, Dave and George, and Leon Thompson, a Randall man, by a posse which sought to arrest them, late yesterday afternoon was ordered held in the county jail pending an investigation by the grand jury of the November term of district court.

An examination in the case lasted nearly four hours and was held before Municipal Judge George Gerritz in the council chamber at the city hall. The room was filled with Motley and Little Falls persons who gathered there to hear the case.

County Attorney D. M. Cameron appeared as prosecutor and E. A. Kling was counsel for the defendant. Verbal clashes engaged in by counsel during the hearing caused several spurts of mirth among the auditors, despite the seriousness of the case involved.

Testimony offered by the state was such as to show:

That Green fired the shot which caused Eugene LeVoy's death.

That he admitted, or rather boasted of the fact immediately upon seeing LeVoy fall, by exclaiming "I got my man."

That apparently the "call upon citizens for assistance in arresting the three LeVoy's and Thompson" was not justified and that the posse apparently was armed before being called upon for aid.

That the shooting incident was an entirely separate affair from the "attack on Constable Stapher and others."

That the men pursued were not armed (except one who had in his possession a large monkey wrench) with dangerous weapons which might be used effectively by fleeing persons.

That the posse and village officers were not armed with warrants of arrest during any part of the procedure.

That the defendant was not justified in firing a 30-30, or high powered rifle in a so thickly populated village under such conditions.

That the bullet from a high powered weapon was the one which caused LeVoy's death, and was the only mortal wound of the three indicted.

Testimony sought to be introduced by the prosecution regarding a statement made to Sheriff Felix by the defendant, relative to the shooting, was ruled out by Judge Gerritz, upon motion of Mr. Kling.

The state witnesses were George Stapher, Constable Beckner, Coroner O. J. Brown, Sheriff Paul Felix, Donovan Jacobs, 12 year old son of Marshal Gus Jacobs.

Marshal Jacobs was the sole witness called by the defense.

His testimony sought to justify the defendant's possession of a weapon on the ground that Green and a number of others were called upon by him, an officer of the law, to aid in apprehending the quartet who had committed a felony.

In his plea for dismissal of the defendant Attorney Kling said that it is a case in which spite is the predominating issue, that it will be impossible to secure a conviction of the defendant, and knowing this the state is seeking to persecute Green by charging him with the most severe crime—murder in the first degree—which is unobtainable and therefore if he is bound over to the grand jury it will be necessary for him to be held in "duress vile."

Attorney Kling quoted several sections of the law to prove that Green's action in shooting—presuming that he did shoot LeVoy—was justified.

County Attorney Cameron in asking for a bind over for investigation by the grand jury, said there was ample evidence to show that a crime had been committed and as it appeared probable that defendant might have caused the death Green should be held pending an investigation by grand jurors of the district court.—Little Falls Transcript.

MINNEAPOLIS HIGHWAYS REPORTED AS GOOD

St. Paul, July 16—Minnesota roads in general are in better condition than ever before.

W. F. Rosenwald, chief maintenance engineer, made the statement today in connection with the weekly issue of the road condition bulletin by the state highway department.

Minnesota newspapermen motoring to Duluth for the outing of the Northern Minnesota Editorial association will find roads generally excellent. Mr. Rosenwald said. The roughest roads are mostly within a 40-mile radius of Minneapolis and St. Paul, the engineer added, and this is due to the grind of unusually heavy traffic which is wearing them down in spite of the best efforts of the patrolmen.

Minnesota trunk highway conditions near Brainerd are given in detail in the weekly bulletin:

No. 2—Fair—Carlton to Moorhead. In detail Carlton good, McGregor, under construction, rough, Aitkin good, Brainerd sandy, Motley sandy, Staples good, Wadena good, Detroit good-fair, Moorhead.

No. 18—Good—Elk River, Milaca and Brainerd. In detail, Elk River construction, fair, Princeton good, Milaca good, Onamia good, Garrison good, Brainerd.

No. 19—Good—Brainerd, Walker and Cass Lake. In detail Brainerd good, Pine River good, Walker good-fair, Cass Lake.

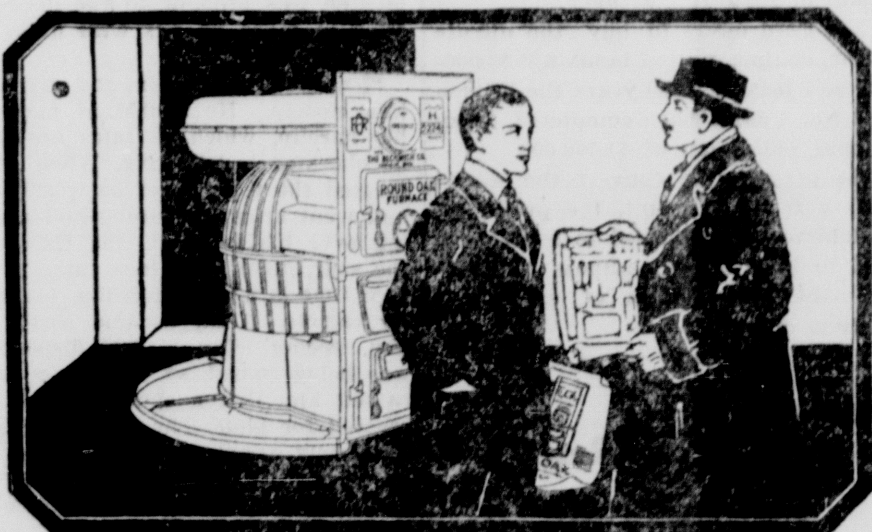

No. 27—Good—St. Cloud, Little Falls and Brainerd. In detail St. Cloud construction-fair, Royalton good, Little Falls good, Fort Ripley fair, Brainerd.

No. 35—Fair—Aitkin, Range Towns and Ely. In detail Mille Lacs Lake fair, Aitkin fair, Hill City fair, Grand Rapids fair, Nashauk good, Hibbing good, Chisholm good, Buhl good, Virginia good, Gilbert fair-good, Biwabik good, Aurora good, Tower good, Ely.

The bulletin is kept on file at the Dispatch office for the convenience of tourists.

The banquet of Brainerd local of printers in honor of the Minnesota Typographical Union will not be given at the lakes but will be held at Garvey's Sunday evening.

Gunard Erickson Post No. 10 World War Veterans are asked to meet at Trades & Labor hall Sunday evening at 7:15 as the National chairman and National secretary will be present at the labor convention and would like to meet the comrades of G. E. Post No. 10.

Fire at Barrows

Barrows, Minn., July 16—The home of Lester Davis, who drives the Barrows bus, was gutted by fire at 9 a. m. today. The fire is believed to have started in the attic from an old heater which had been used to burn waste paper. The house was two-story, of frame and had seven rooms. Insurance was carried on the house and contents. Considerable of the furniture was saved.

The whole town of Barrows, men, women and children, turned out as a volunteer fire department and packed water from pumps and wells to put out the flames and prevent it being carried farther.

HOMER GREEN HELD TO GRAND JURY

Motley Man is Charged With Killing Eugene LeVoy at Motley—Arrested Last Saturday

TESTIMONY OFFERED BY STATE

Claim Made That the Shooting Was Entirely Separate from Attack on Constable

Homer Green, Motley, 23 years old, arrested last Saturday on a charge of first degree murder, more specifically with premeditatedly firing the shot which killed Eugene LeVoy during chase of the man and two brothers, Dave and George, and Leon Thompson, a Randall man, by a posse which sought to arrest them, late yesterday afternoon was ordered held in the county jail pending an investigation by the grand jury of the November term of district court.

An examination in the case lasted nearly four hours and was held before Municipal Judge George Gerritz in the council chamber at the city hall. The room was filled with Motley and Little Falls persons who garnered there to hear the case.

County Attorney D. M. Cameron appeared as prosecutor and E. A. Kling was counsel for the defendant. Verbiclashes engaged in by counsel during the hearing caused several spurts of mirth among the auditors, despite the seriousness of the case involved.

Testimony offered by the state was such as to show:

That Green fired the shot which caused Eugene LeVoy's death.

That he admitted, or rather boasted of the fact immediately upon seeing LeVoy fall, by exclaiming "I got my man."

That apparently the "call upon citizens for assistance in arresting the three LeVoy's and Thompson" was not justified and that the posse apparently was armed before being called upon for aid.

That the shooting incident was an entirely separate affair from the "attack on Constable Stapher and others."

That the men pursued were not armed (except one who had in his possession a large monkey wrench) with dangerous weapons which might be used effectively by fleeing persons.

That the posse and village officers were not armed with warrants of arrest during any part of the procedure.

That the defendant was not justifified in firing a 30-30, or high powered rifle in a so thickly populated village under such conditions.

That the bullet from a high powered weapon was the one which caused LeVoy's death, and was the only mortal wound of the three inflicted.

Testimony sought to be introduced by the prosecution regarding a statement made to Sheriff Felix by the defendant, relative to the shooting was ruled out by Judge Gerritz, upon motion of Mr. Kling.

The state witnesses were George Stapher, Constable Beckner, Corone
O. J. Brown, Sheriff Paul Felix, Donovan Jacobs, 12 year old son of Marshal Gus Jacobs.

Marshal Jacobs was the sole witness called by the defense.

His testimony sought to justify the defendant's possession of a weapon on the ground that Green and a number of others were called upon by him, an officer of the law, to aid in apprehending the quartet who had committed a felony.

In his plea for dismissal of the defendant Attorney Kling said that it is a case in which spite is the predominating issue, that it will be impossible to secure a conviction of the defendant, and knowing this the state is seeking to persecute Green by charging him with the most severe crime—murder in the first degree—which is unobtainable and therefore if he is bound over to the grand jury it will be necessary for him to be held in "duress vile."

Attorney Kling quoted several sections of the law to prove that Green's action in shooting—presuming that he did shoot LeVoy—was justified.

County Attorney Cameron in asking for a bind over for investigation by the grand jury, said there was ample evidence to show that a crime had been committed and as it appeared probable that defendant might have caused the death Green should be held pending an investigation by grand jurors of the district court.—

Minnesota newspapermen motoring to Duluth for the outing of the Northern Minnesota Editorial association will find roads generally excellent.
Mr. Rosenwald said. The roughest roads are mostly within a 40-mile radius of Minneapolis and St. Paul, the engineer added, and this is due to the grind of unusually heavy traffic which is wearing them down in spite of the best efforts of the patrolmen.

Contract Now at the Lowest Possible Price

We are taking contracts, now, for installing Round Oak heating systems, whenever desired, at prices as low as could be made. That is, present prices are guaranteed, with full rebate to you in event of decline. Why delay decision another week? There may soon be a shortage in these systems, due to new building. Also, by contracting now, you are sure of a careful, painstaking installation—our men won't have to hurry. And we offer, in addition, special inducements and exceptional terms on such contracts. See us this week.

LOYD GEORGE SEEKS TO OBTAIN CONCESSIONS SO THAT PEACE MAY RESULT

CHAS. McCANN

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

London, July 16—It was believed today that concessions would be made to the Sinn Feiners so peace may be permanently restored in Ireland.

Sir James Craig, head of the Ulster government, summoned his cabinet to London after Lloyd George had informed him yesterday that both sides must make concessions and outlined to him the concessions Ulster was expected to agree to. Craig, it was understood, would not give a definite announcement without consulting his cabinet ministers. As soon as Lloyd George has obtained the agreement of both Eamonn De Valera and Craig to the proposed mutual concessions, so that a basis of permanent settlement has been established, regular peace conferences among representatives of the British governments, the Sinn Fein and Ulster governments will be started, probably early next week.

Ulster, it was understood, has proven more obstinate than the Sinn Fein section of Ireland, it was said.

WAR CONTINUES BETWEEN SINN FEIN AND ORANGEMEN

IN ULSTER DESPITE THE TRUCE—SEVERAL ARE KILLED AND PROPERTY DESTROYED

Belfast, July 16—Warfare between Orangemen and Sinn Feiners continued in Ulster today despite the truce. One man was killed here and five seriously wounded before dawn in street fighting. Sharpshooters fired from windows and roofs. Military patrols searched houses for these snipers.

Deaths since Sunday total twenty, and there are scores of wounded in hospitals. A number of groceries and saloons were in flames this morning due to the work of incendiary gangs and others were completely demolished by reeking crews who broke into them.

Ford Nitrate Bid to Congress, Says Weeks

Washington, July 15—Secretary of War J. W. Weeks announced today that he would ask congress for authority to accept a proposal by Henry Ford for acquiring the government nitrate plant at Muscle Shoals, Ala., if the offer was found to be "substantial." The proposal, transmitted by Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover was on his desk, Mr. Weeks said adding that he would begin the study of its terms at once.

Mr. Ford offers to buy the nitrate plant, equipment and lands for $5,000,000 and lease for 100 years the Wilson and No. 3 dam, when completed, at an annual obligation of $1,500,000.

He proposes to convert the works into a fertilizer plant, the profits of which would be limited to 8 per cent and to keep it in readiness for government manufacture of explosives in time of war.

Washington, July 16—The government today dismissed the case against Captain Robert Rosenbluth in connection with the death of Major Alexander Cronkite at Camp Lewis Washington.

Townley Denied the Re-Argument of Case By State Supreme Court

(By United Press)

St. Paul, July 16—A. C. Townley, nonpartisan league president, has only one remaining hope to escape a ninety day sentence in the Jackson county jail. That hope is the United States supreme court.

Townley and Joseph Gilbert were found guilty in Jackson county of conspiring to teach disloyalty during the war, and were sentenced to ninety days by Judge A. C. Dean.

Gilbert, former nonpartisan league official, now is serving a year's sentence in the Goodhue county jail for disloyalty during the war.

The state supreme court refused to permit reargument of Townley's appeal from the Jackson county court's decision but allowed him a stay of sentence for thirty days to ask the United States supreme court to review his case.

If the United States supreme court refuses to review his case Townley must be put in jail. Gilbert's sentence will be enforced when he finishes his present jail term.

Chicago Union Station Co. Given Power to Issue Bonds

GREAT PLAYS' "FIRST NIGHTS"

Six Occasions That Stand Out Prominently in the Artistic History of France.

Perhaps the most striking events in the artistic history of France have been the first performances of certain of the great French plays. In a few cases, also, these occasions have marked the beginning of new epochs in the social history of that country.

There have, it appears, been but six unforgettable first nights since theaters were established in Paris. The first occurred in 1637, when Corneille's "Le Cid" took the capital by storm. Forty years later Racine's "Andromache" created a similar sensation. On the eve of the Revolution, in 1794, Beaumarchais' "Marriage of Figaro" was received with such delicious enthusiasm that three persons were stifled in the rush for seats. In 1830 Victor Hugo, in spite of the determined opposition of a large body of reactionaries, set all Paris in an uproar with his "Hernani." These names may be borne in mind: Corneille, Racine, Beaumarchais and Hugo. Three of them, at least, have no superiors in the history of French literature. Each has one amazing dramatic triumph to his credit. The other two of the six great first nights were December 28, 1807, and February 7, 1910. The occasions were respectively the performances of "Cyrano de Bergerac" and "Chantecler," both by Edmond Rostand.—Philadelphia Ledger.

How Camel Got His Harelip.

In "The Women of Egypt" Mrs. Elizabeth Cooper, the author, says that when she decided to ride a camel and he was brought to the door she tried to make friends with him, and continues:

"I walked around him and examined him closely. He smiled at me with his harelip, which, if tales are true, he obtained legitimately. When Allah created the first camel he was lonely and went around moaning and groaning over his fate. It was then that the sour, dissatisfied look came to his face that is a distinguishing mark of all camels. Allah became sorry for him, seeing what a fine disposition was being ruined, so he sent a genie to tell him that a spouse was being created for him. The news delighted the lonely camel so intensely that he smiled and smiled until he split his lip, and it has remained thus ever since."

Hopeless.

"Ah, I was a struggling young man when I married her. Yes, I struggled hard, but I couldn't escape."—From the Looker-On, Calcutta.

"Lobby" and "Lobbyists."
The word lobby is derived from the Latin "lobia," a portico, covered way or gallery, and in the modern sense refers to such a hall as an anteroom in a theater or adjacent to a legislative or audience chamber, where private persons are permitted to enter for the purpose of consulting with the members. In the political vocabulary of the United States, the term refers also to the persons who frequent this place for the purpose of influencing the votes of the legislators. Hence they are called "lobbyists" and their business "lobbying."

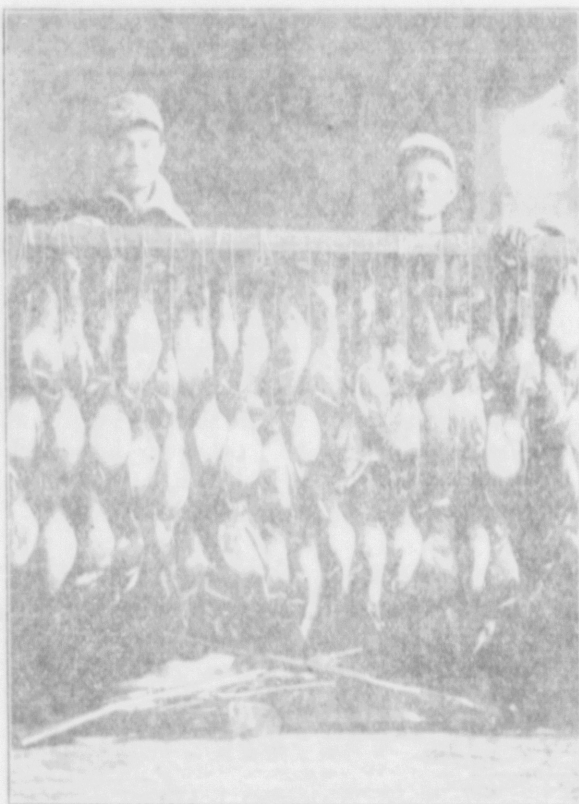

Safety Match Swedish Invention.
The safety match was the invention of a Swedish manufacturer named Lundstrum. It has been on the market since 1855. Its head contains no phosphorus, but holds a mixture of which chlorate of potash usually forms a part. The striking surface, on the side of the box, is formed by a compound of red phosphorus and sand. The safety match is manufactured chiefly in Sweden, Norway and Japan.

On the eve of the Revolution, in 1794, Beaumarchais' "Marriage of Figaro" was received with such delicious enthusiasm that three persons were stifled in the rush for seats. In 1830 Victor Hugo, in spite of the determined opposition of a large body of reactionaries, set all Paris in an uproar with his "Hernani." These names may be borne in mind: Corneille, Racine, Beaumarchais and Hugo. Three of them, at least, have no superiors in the history of French literature. Each has one amazing dramatic triumph to his credit. The other two of the six great first nights were December 28, 1897, and February 7, 1910. The occasions were respectively the performances of "Cyrano de Bergerac" and "Chantecler," both by Edmond Rostand.—Philadelphia Ledger.

How Camel Got His Harelip.

In "The Women of Egypt" Mrs. Elizabeth Cooper, the author, says that when she decided to ride a camel and he was brought to the door she tried to make friends with him, and continues:

"I walked around him and examined him closely. He smiled at me with his harelip, which, if tales are true, he obtained legitimately. When Allah created the first camel he was lonely and went around moaning and groaning over his fate. It was then that the sour, dissatisfied look came to his face that is a distinguishing mark of all camels. Allah became sorry for him, seeing what a fine disposition was being ruined, so he sent a genie to tell him that a spouse was being created for him. The news delighted the lonely camel so intensely that he smiled and smiled until he split his lip, and it has remained thus ever since."

Hopeless.

"Ah, I was a struggling young man when I married her. Yes, I struggled hard, but I couldn't escape."—From the Looker-On, Calcutta.

"Lobby" and "Lobbyists."
The word lobby is derived from the Latin "lobia," a portico, covered way or gallery, and in the modern sense refers to such a hall as an anteroom in a theater or adjacent to a legislative or audience chamber, where private persons are permitted to enter for the purpose of consulting with the members. In the political vocabulary of the United States, the term refers also to the persons who frequent this place for the purpose of influencing the votes of the legislators. Hence they are called "lobbyists" and their business "lobbying."

Safety Match Swedish Invention.
The safety match was the invention of a Swedish manufacturer named Lundstrum. It has been on the market since 1855. Its head contains no phosphorus, but holds a mixture of which chlorate of potash usually forms a part. The striking surface, on the side of the box, is formed by a compound of red phosphorus and sand. The safety match is manufactured chiefly in Sweden, Norway and Japan.
